The Invasion.

Wichita, Kan., 9.—Payne, with 400 colons, expects to make an all night march on the Cherokee tribe. The Mason and a company of the Fourth Cavalry are following closely on the invaders.

The Royal Quarrel.

London, 9.—It is now rumored loudly throughout London society that there has been a serious rupture between the princes to her mother to make the quarrel up, but failed. The most romantic romance is given for this royal family for.

The Cota Case.

San Francisco, 10.—When the case of the extradition of Cota, came up in the superior court, this morning, Deputy

United States District Attorney

Loren appeared and stated that institution had been received from Attorney General Devens for the district attorney to represent the United States, maintain the extradition of Cota, on account of its prevention of a collision of the state with Mexican authorities. At the request of Loren, the court granted the case, a continuance was granted until next Tuesday.

A Righteous Protest.

Cincinnati, 9.—To-night, during the performance of the opera "The House of One Hundred Wives," a well-dressed gentleman arose in the audience, and in a loud voice protested against the further progress of the play, on account of its attacks on the Mormon religion. He was so deeply in earnest and became so violently so, that he attracted the attention of the whole house, and Manager Hallberg was obliged to direct him from the house.

He appeared to be a man of the right kind, and he was an Englishman, stopping for a time in the city.

Death of "Blue Gown."

New York, 9.—The steamer "Blue Gown," which was shipped on the dinner table, November 18, died on November 25th from exhaustion, produced by the tossing of the ship. "Blue Gown" was an English thoroughbred years ago. He had been recently purchased by James H. Kew for the sum of $30,000. The animal was strong and put in a good deal of the plucking, but however, frightened him. He sprang about and fretted continually, until he died, although he received no apparent injury.

The Fire Record.

St. Louis, 9.—The extensive pickle and tallow factory and ware room of Yarnall Bros., 318 North Main street, caught fire from the upper story about 11 o'clock and the three upper stories are now nearly thoroughly destroyed. Loss estimated at $50,000. Insurance not yet known.

The Ohio Senatorship.

New York, 10.—World's Washington:

It is reported here, that within a few days, a letter will reach the Senate from Washington, requesting the vice-president to resign his office, in order to be re-elected, that he may transmit them in turn, to the Ohio Legislature. Pending, who has given the matter careful legal review, says it is clear to him that within ten days after receipt of notice of his election, the legislature may proceed to elect a new senator. It is proposed to

London, 9.—It is understood that the new government bill for suppressing corrupt practices at elections will prohibit the use of public houses as committee rooms, and order them to be closed on polling days. The publishers are in descale over the intelligence.

It is stated that Lord Cranbrook has promised to attend Mr. Henry Chaplin's banquet, which is to be given to Lord Randolph Churchill's fourth party at Blenheim, in Lincolnshire.

The people in England who take an interest in Philadelphia and Reading Railroad stocks, are looking out for a lively time when Gwyn, president of the road holders do not think any law will of Mr.

Gwyn's management, and Powell, the English representative of the road, has done every effort to bring about Gwyn's defeat when he reaches here by bill.

London, 10.—Gladstone's circular to members of the House of Commons, describing their attendance in Parliament for important business, says business of the first importance will at once be proceeded with.

The Daily News.

The Daily News, in a leading editorial article commenting on the circular, says it is essentially a measure of the business which had begun to circulate that Parliament will be summoned after the Christmas, and of other rumors put forward with the semblance of authority, the government would be compelled, in consequence of divisions among ministers, to content itself with a declaratory resolution on the Irish question, instead of proceeding by bill. The Daily News adds that at the same time as to persons will read Gladstone's circular with a distinct sense of relief. It is one thing to feel morally certain that important business will be entered upon at once, it is another thing to be informed of the fact by the prime minister. The
